John F. Kennedy

1917 - 1963

With a good conscience our only sure reward, with history the final judge of our deeds, let us go forth to lead the land we love, asking His blessing and His help, but knowing that here on earth God's work must truly be our own.

From Inaugural Address of John Fitzgerald Kennedy

The Principal's Message

Mr. E. Francis Kane

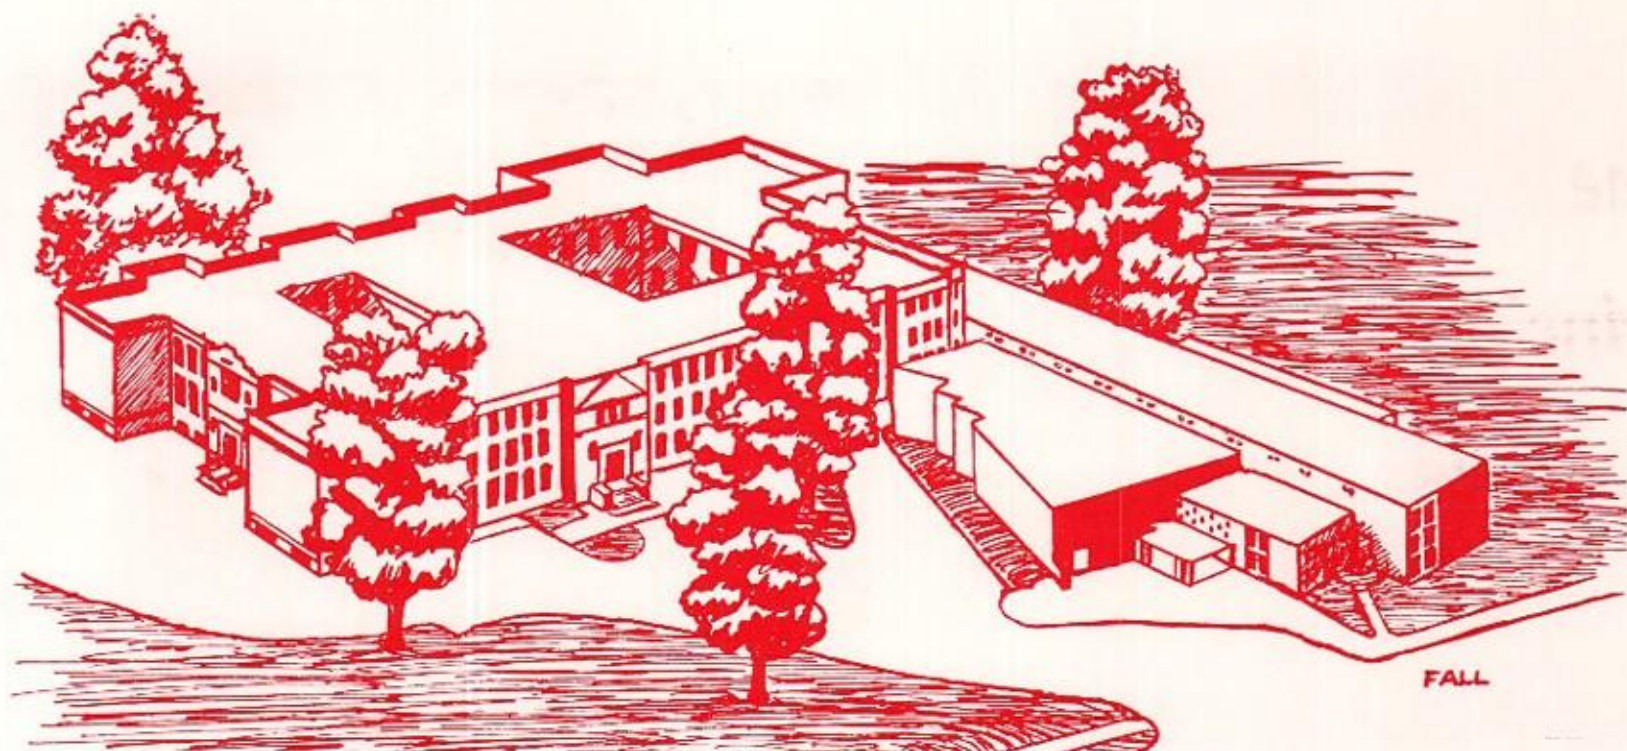

My sincere congratulations to a most outstanding class, the graduating class of 1964.

The renovation of our school and the large addition in the form of a new wing, made possible by the generosity of your parents and citizens of the town, has not made your task an easy one with bulldozers, cranes, and airhammers ever present for the past two school years. Yet you have accepted these challenges and crowded conditions with a cooperative attitude and attained great heights in every endeavor. You have set a fine example for the succeeding classes who will enjoy these splendid new facilities which are now nearing completion.

As you go on to college or enter the business world you are well prepared to meet the challenges of an ever increasing complex adult life. Be not dismayed with the constant reminder of unemployment and the dislocations caused by automation. Your high school career has been the mere beginning. An understanding faculty has taught you the right answers, the right attitudes, the right way of thinking; and perhaps more important, you have learned there is yet so much more to learn, so much more to know, and so much more of yourself to give for the welfare of others.

We are confident of your success.

ACTIVITIES

National Honor Society

About one student in every twenty makes the National Honor Society. "Honor" is their middle name — and it is a distinct honor to place their picture first among all school activities.

Chosen by their teachers and principal for excellence in academic achievement, high quality of leadership, sincerity of purpose, and devotion to the high standards of Milton High School, they have all earned for themselves the singular distinction of membership in the Milton High School Chapter of the National Honor Society.

It is encouraging to note that each year, since establishment of our chapter, membership has increased. The individual, the school, and the community all benefit as this number grows. We, the editors, congratulate the members of the Society and trust that they will inspire Sophomores and Juniors to membership.

Senior Honor Roll

With courses becoming more comprehensive and difficult each year because of the demands of our era, students necessarily find it more difficult to maintain honor grades throughout their high school careers. Nevertheless, by consistent hard-work and persistent effort, our best students do maintain these high standards. Reflecting glory on themselves, their families and their school are our Senior Honor Roll students. Along with the National Honor Society these students are the cream of Milton High School. They are more than all-A students; they are all-A citizens.

Yearbook Literary Staff

Recording the activities and accomplishments of three hundred twenty-five seniors has been the job of the Yearbook Staff. What was it Churchill said about: "Never have so many owed so much to so few"? The writeups, the captions, the pictures didn't just happen; they are the result of the hard work of a few conscientious, capable members of the Class of 1964.

Yearbook Business Staff

The difference between what you pay for a yearbook and what it costs to print it has to be raised by our very capable Yearbook Business Staff. They begin in September and they never stop till your book is paid for. Keeping after advertisers, selling popcorn, promoting tickets for the Senior Play — these and so many other ways are used by the Y. B. S. to guarantee you a good book.

Echo Staff

Twice a year the students of M. H. S. are treated to a prize-winning magazine. The literary talent of the school is poured into the fall and spring issues; result: great reading in depth. The editors of the ECHO have never been satisfied with anything but excellence. Congratulations on maintaining the high standard you have set for yourselves.

DRAMATIC CLUB

Dramatic Club and Thespians

The play's the thing!

Makeshift rehearsal areas, unfamiliar stages, uncertainty — all these did not faze members of the Dramatic Club or the National Thespian Troupe 2209. They feasted on misfortune and thrived on crises. The show must go on — and it did.

NATIONAL THESPIAN TROUPE NO. 2209

Student Council

Besides being a governing body, the Student Council seeks to provide the students with information and entertainment. It has sponsored an assembly in which the members of the Senior Class could hear the candidates for class office speak on personal qualifications and matters of importance concerning the Senior Class. It has sponsored the annual Sophomore Breakfast, and cake sale in the fall, besides earning money by having members sell candy at basketball games.

We are grateful to the members whose unselfish efforts have made our years at Milton so rewarding.

Home Room Delegation

Co-sponsors of the Sophomore Breakfast, promoters of the Junior Dinner, producers of the February Talent Show and late semester Hootenanny — these and a host of other activities were attended to by members of the Home-room Delegation. This group truly represents the will of the students and has done an excellent job in 1963-64 for its fellow students.

Library Club

The Library Club's interest is to add enjoyment to reading and make it a pleasure rather than a chore. The Library Club is experimenting this year with the paper-back book store. These books, which cover a variety of subjects, are available to the students at nominal cost. Funds received are being put towards a scholarship.

The officers of the 1963-64 Library Club are: Christina Walker, President; Evelyn Scribner, Vice-president; Janet Foster, Secretary; Marcia Morgan, treasurer. Under their direction, activities including a Christmas tea, a Valentine party, and a picnic to climax the year, have been held.

Library Assistants

Milton High School boasts a superb library. In five years it has grown from non-existence to the well-stocked, neatly arranged shelves that have helped all students learn better and know more. Keeping the permanent books intact and in order, and operating the popular paperback book store have kept Mrs. Pile's library assistants a very busy group.

Girls League

Every M. H. S. activity is a busy one, but the Girls League must rate among the most active. Under Miss Miller the League planned and conducted the big dances of the year and the highly applauded Mothers' Tea. On the practical side the girls contributed to the annual Girls League scholarship fund to benefit a deserving college-bound graduate.

FRENCH CLUB

French Club

The French Club had an ambitious program this year: French newspaper printed by the members, dinner in a French restaurant, French movies and plays, and presentation of skits representing life and culture in France made for a variety-packed year.

The French Honor Society, chosen for continuing excellence in French and all subjects, reflects great honor on the Foreign Language Department and Milton High School.

FRENCH HONOR SOCIETY

Art Club

Art Club members enjoyed trips to the Museum of Fine Arts, Brandeis University, the Boston Globe exhibit, and to various school art club exhibits. Keeping our corridor walls adorned with award-winning masterpieces has also been an important function of the M. H. S. Art Club. Mr. Alexander's enthusiasm for things artistic is a key ingredient for the success the club enjoys.

BAND

Band and Glee Club

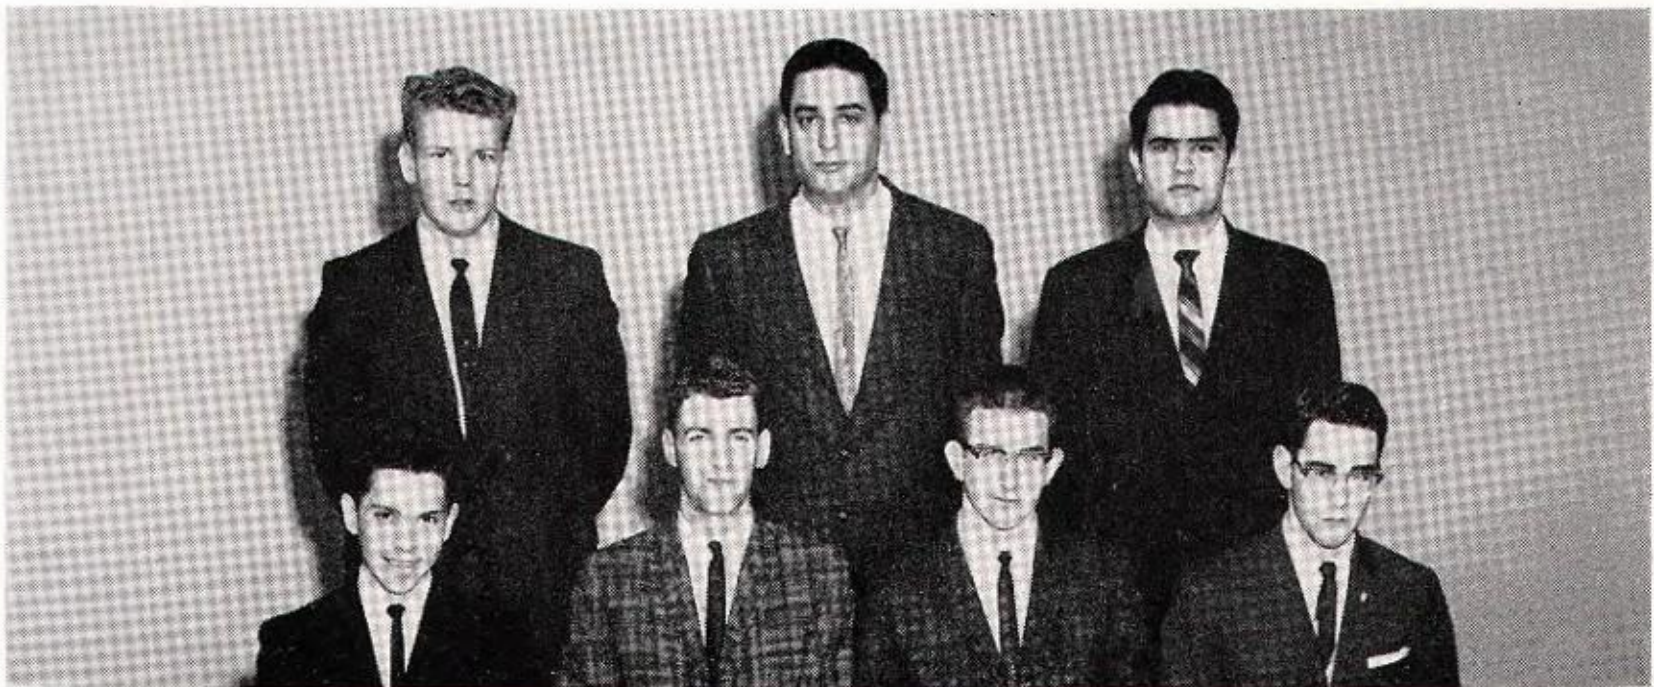

Music for Milton High School — indoor and outdoor — has been provided by the M.H.S. Band under Mr. O'Donnell, and the Glee Club under Mr. Tatro. Exchange concerts and the all-instrument concert at Pierce gave much pleasure to members and audiences. The Christmas program this year, with Paul Mitchell as narrator, featured both gay and solemn holiday music.

With practice sessions limited to one period a day in makeshift Room 223, and an hour a week before school in the early morning, both the Band and the Glee Club did a marvelous job this year.

GLEE CLUB

Screen Guild

The Screen Guild plays an essential role in Milton High. The members of the Screen Guild, under the leadership of Robert Smith, chief technician, are responsible for the operation and maintenance of the audio-visual aids throughout the building. Their knowledge and skill of all such equipment makes it possible for students to gain a better understanding of such subjects as biology, chemistry and English and it is their "behind-the-scenes" work which make all school functions complete and enjoyable. The teachers, above all, are deeply indebted to the valuable services which the Screen Guild affords. Similarly in the audio-visual field is Mr. Hamilton's 8 mm. Movie Club.

Concessions

Profits from selling hot dogs, coffee, cokes, and programs at football games are turned over to the Yearbook's financial adviser who in turn sees that a bigger and better Yearbook is published. Long hours of hard work, often in the biting cold, have never erased the cheery smiles nor silenced the pleasant sounds of our concessionaires. A tip of the chapeau to you all.

CONCESSIONS UNDER MR. CREIGHTON

Debating Club

One of the new clubs started this year is the Debating Club under the direction of Mrs. Goldman. The elected officers are Ralph Donabed, president, Phylis Lieberman, vice-president, and Betsey Pierce, secretary. Throughout the year different groups within the club have presented debates on current topics, with members of the club acting as judges. Actually this is a year of forming the Club and building for the future. As we go to press we are negotiating with other schools for future debates.

Front Row: C. Colombo, J. McGrath, M. Dobson, B. Nugent, J. Bottari, M. Roche, A. Cotreau, N. Mahoney. Second Row: D. Keveny, M. Laffan, P. Karsh, M. O'Neill, T. Palingo, N. Gardiner, S. Devore, C. Future Homemakers of America

The Milton High chapter of the Future Homemakers of America is, this year, besides being one of the most active clubs in the school, the largest chapter of its kind in the state, having 130 members. In November, the FHA of Milton were represented at the state convention. In December it was a candlelight initiation ceremony and Mothers' Tea. May they live always up to their motto: TOWARDS NEW HORIZONS.

Ski Club

Up at 4:00 a.m.! Aching bones all day Monday! Forgetting money, bus tickets, and wax! Broken skis, snow-white derrieres, wind-burn! Sound like fun? It sure is! For sheer good fellowship, a barrel of fun, and a million laughs — you'd have had 'em all if you had joined the M.H.S. Ski Club.

LATIN CLUB

Latin Club

The purpose of the Latin Club is to instill in interested students a love for the classical and an appreciation of all the humanities through a knowledge of Latin culture . . . and to have a lot of fun while doing it.

Math Club

Activities of the Math Club include: participation in math and science fairs, trips to computer labs, films on new phases of math. Their largest project this year was a slide rule class offered to students.

Football Awards

Late on a dark November afternoon the silence encompassing Needham High School's football field was broken with the curt announcement that: "Milton High School is the new champion of the Bay State League." And in the twilight it dawned upon us that the superhuman efforts of our team had finally been rewarded.

In a league without a pushover, in a league where boys become men, this was the toughest, the best trained, the cleverest team ever to wear the red and white spangles of Milton High School.

To the varsity, to the jayvees, to the managers, to the water-boys, and to the men who made them champs: Good work, boys!

Co-captains Blake and Martinelli

Fight, O fight for dear old Milton

— Our boys did!
They sweated, strived, and worked their hearts out at every game.

We must win today

— Desire was the star of our team.

Remember boys that we are with you,

The entire school, everyone, did their part rooting for the Whiz Kids.

Watching every play.

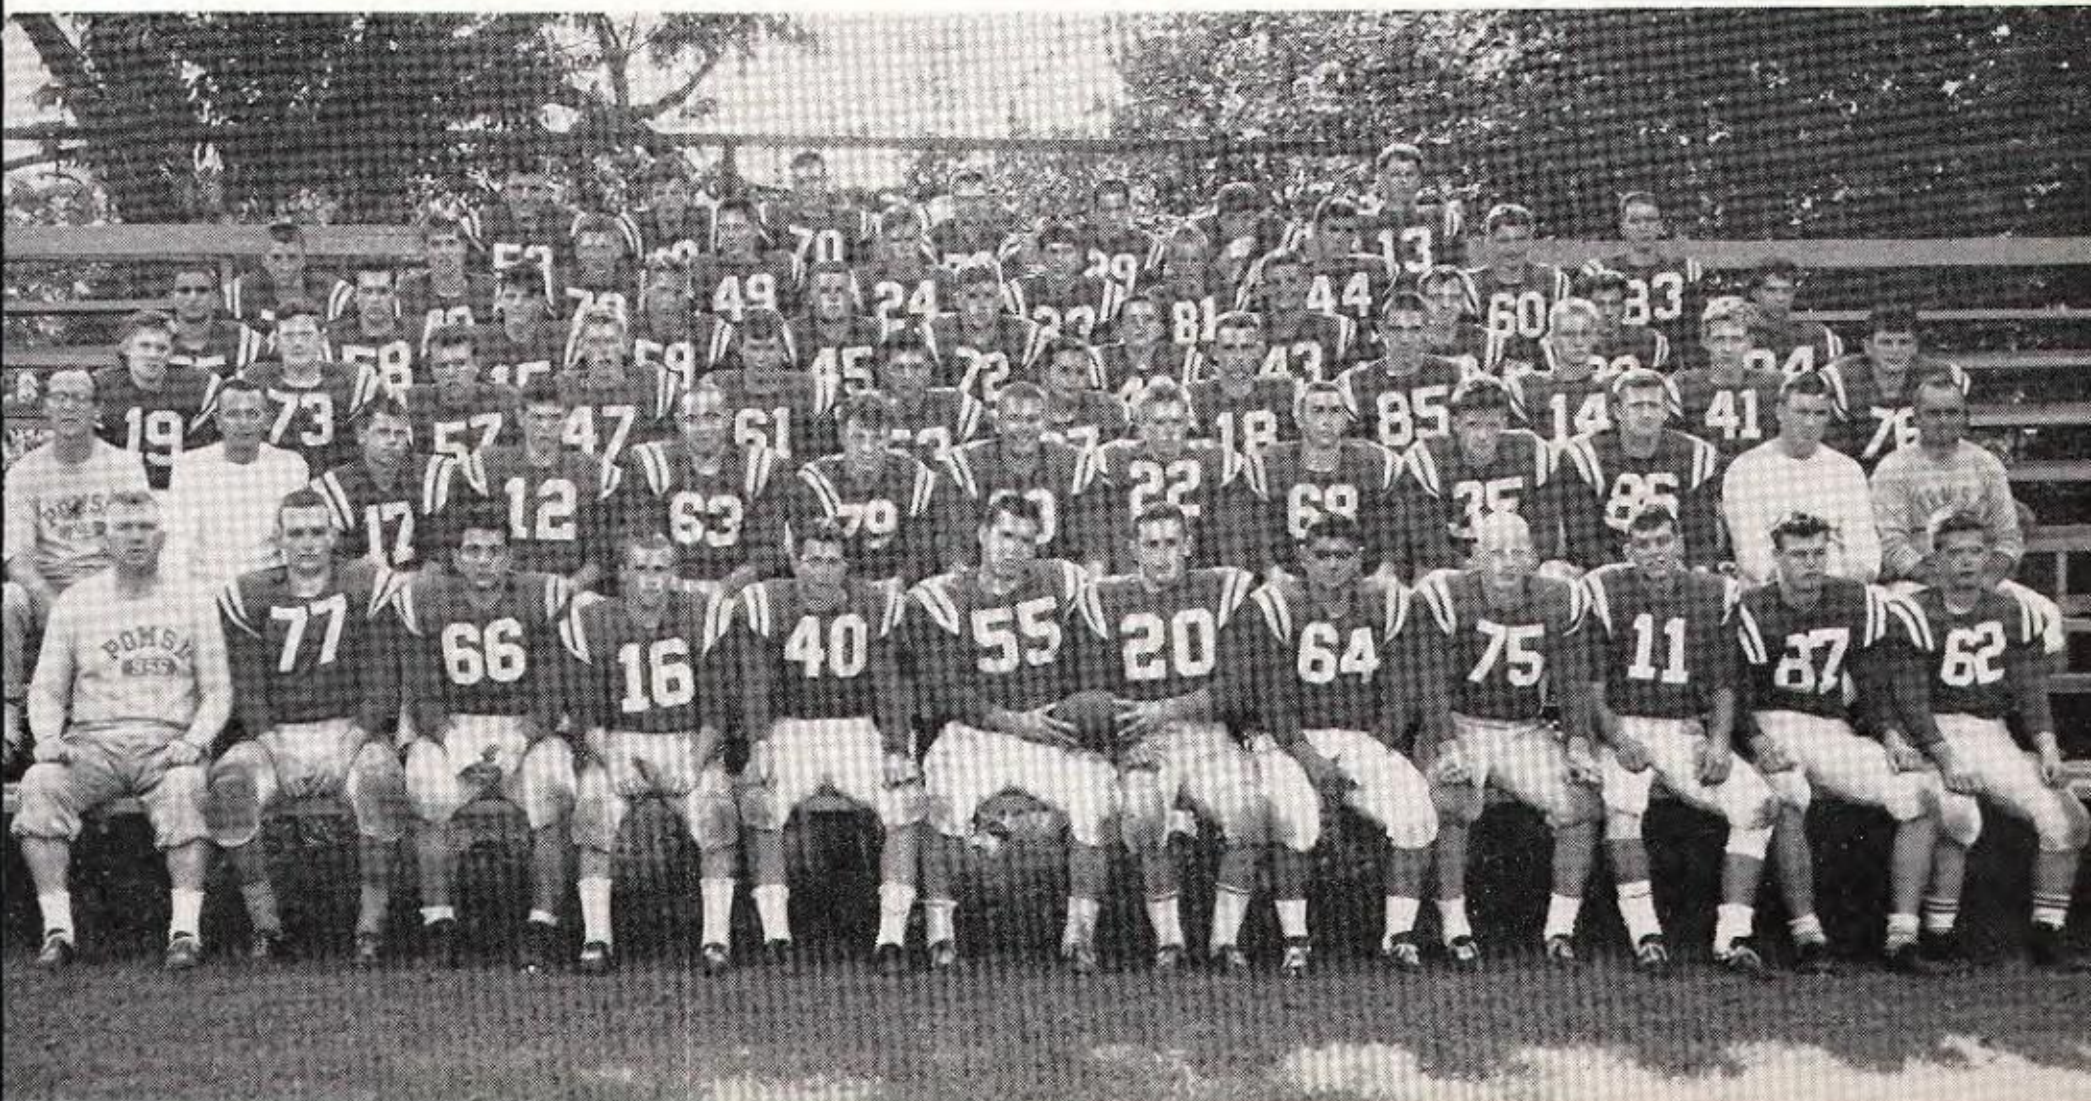

Each tackle, each block, each pass was important.
Teamwork was the victor.

Lift the name of Milton higher, lift it to the sky

Every team in the league respects Milton as the football powerhouse.

For we'll fight, fight, fight, and we'll win tonight and we'll honor Milton High.

For the first time in history, Milton won the league title.
Boys, we're proud of you!

The Owen B. Kiernan Award

Bruce Ryan, unsung hero of many games, and John Blake, everybody's all-scholastic, were the co-winners of the Owen B. Kiernan award for outstanding play in the triumph over Braintree on Thanksgiving Day. The tremendous team performance made it doubly difficult to select a winner; thus these young men can feel very proud of the honor given to them.

CHEERLEADERS

Cheerleaders and Majorettes

Color, zip, and glamor were added to all our sports events this year as the 1963-64 version of our Cheerleaders and Majorettes went through their carefully rehearsed routines. As much a part of every game as the teams themselves, we tip our hat to these lovely ladies.

MAJORETTES

In Appreciation

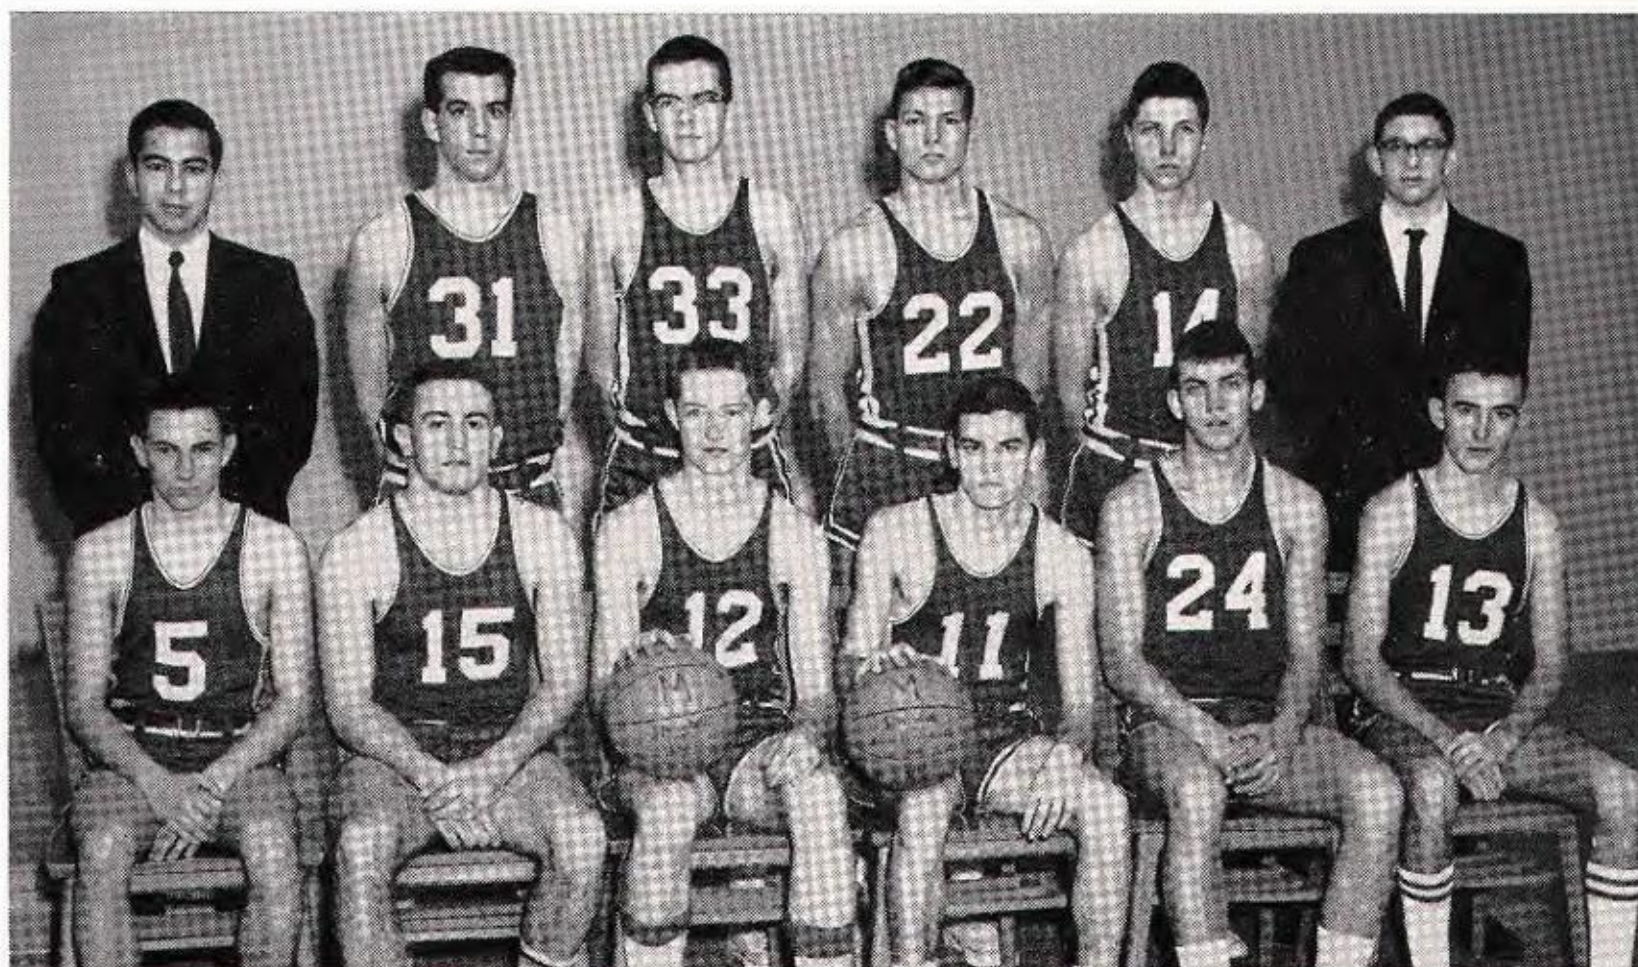

Inscribed on the trophy given by the 1963 football squad to their coaches are these words:

TO OUR COACHES

Head Coach Tom Brennan
Assistant Warren Lapworth
Assistant Dick Ryan
Assistant Norman Tardiff
Our sincerest thanks
From the 1963 champions

Basketball

Where we were short on height, we were long on hustle; where we were short in depth, we were long on desire. No finer group of athletes ever represented Milton High School than its 1963-64 basketball team. They made the most powerful team in the state extend itself to the utmost; when they played the Kids, they knew they had been in a fight. With the jayvee team a winning one this year, maybe 1964-65 will see us Tech Tourney-bound.

INDOOR TRACK

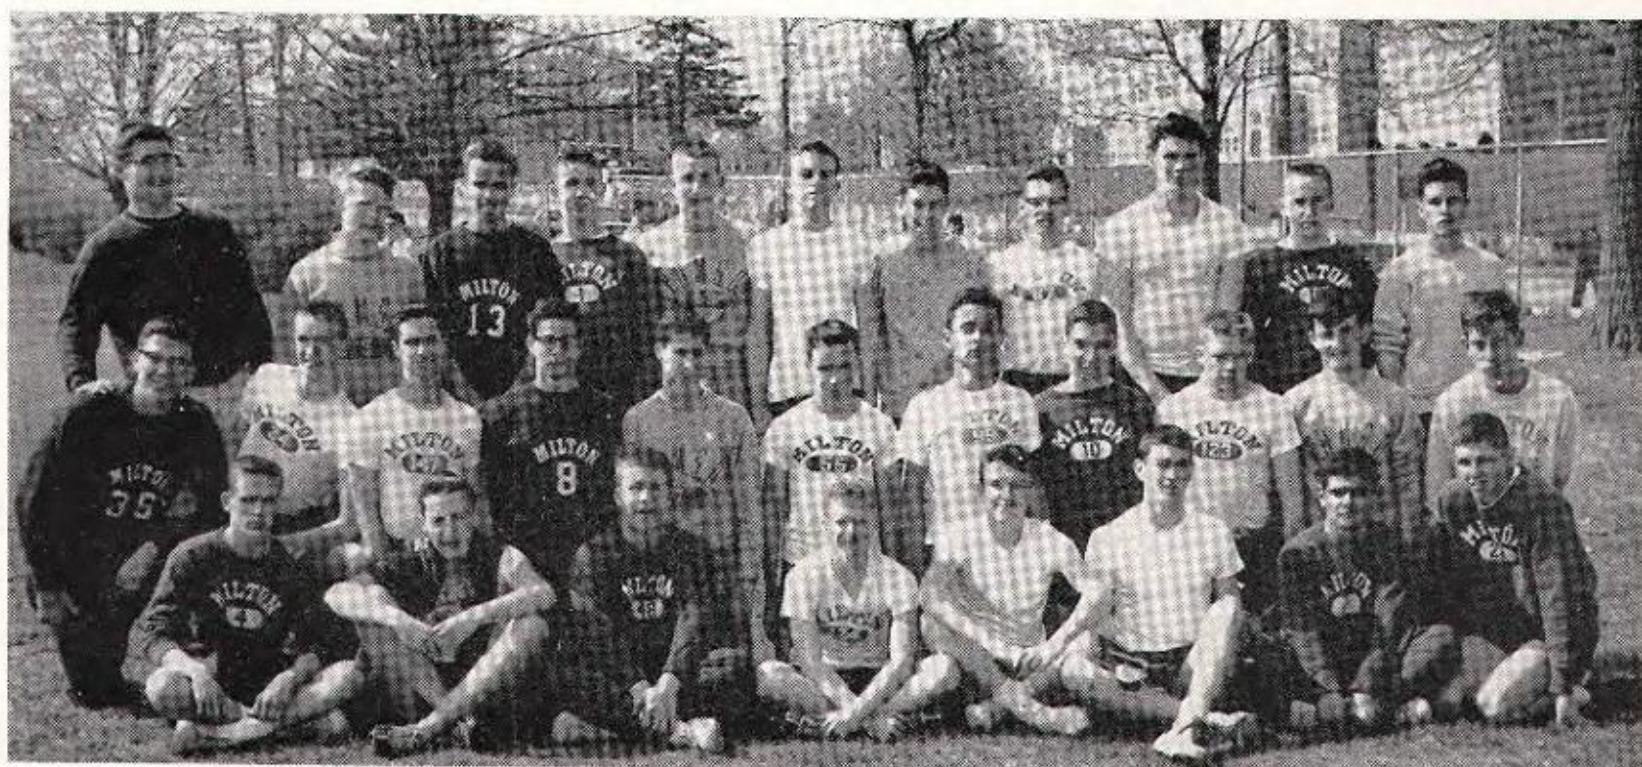

Front Row: Allan Tatel, Ted Hollidge, Richard Morris, Ken Leach, Martin Levitt, Edward Anton.

Track

Our two track teams compiled an excellent record this year. Practicing in corridors and cafeterias long after all others had gone home, our dedicated runners (you have to be DEDICATED) to contend with their practice conditions, not to mention the air-conditioned armories and sheds they actually raced in, gave their very best effort to achieving team success and school honor.

OUTDOOR TRACK

Front Row: D. Cox, R. Moore, D. Brogna, S. Needel, R. Morris, P. Maguire, J. Sidoti, R. Gundersen.
Second Row: D. Sheptyck, P. Cappers, A. Cushing, M. Levitt, A. Kaplan, R. Riley, N. Gordon, S. Astrachan, P. Mitchell, R. Dugan, H. Wifholm. Third Row: J. Blake, R. Smith, A. Perriello, K. Leach, R. Powers, K. O'Donnell, V. Aieta, R. Anton, F. Haggerty, W. Nugent.

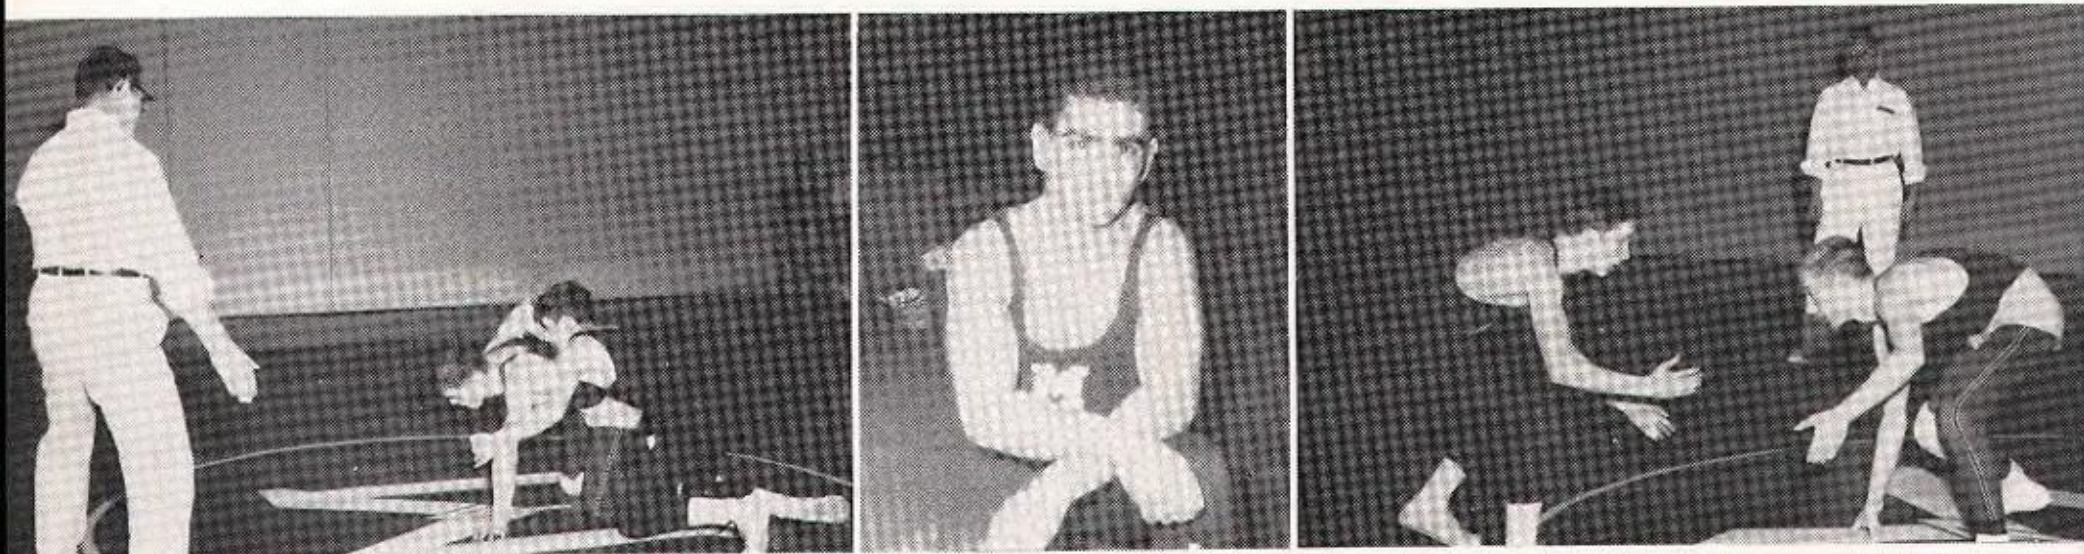

Front Row: William Cook, Ronald McNeill, Joseph Sidoti, Neil Cannon, Paul Mitchell, David Harris.

Wrestling

An 18-17 loss to powerhouse Wellesley was all that stood between our wrestlers and sole claim to the Bay State League Championship. Coach Tardiff's squad, admittedly the best trained and best coached squad in the league, can review with great pride and satisfaction in the 1964 campaign, especially its victory in the State Meet where the Milton team was crowned State Champion.

Gymnastics

They arrived at school every day during the season at 6:45 a.m. They practiced till the bell at 8:10 a.m. They competed with teams who have had years of experience. But the Milton High Varsity Gymnastics team, in its first year, held its own with all of them. Congratulations, boys!

HOCKEY

Hockey

The upset of the entire sports year took place at Boston Arena this past winter when unheralded Milton High School dropped vaunted Needham from the ranks of the undefeated with a sparkling 3-0 shut-out over their arch ice foes. Playing with a small squad, our ice men gave a very creditable performance in league competition.

Soccer

Our hustling soccer team, spearheaded by goalie Bill Nutting, had a winning season for itself in 1963. Coach Pedersen has many returnees next year, headed by co-captains Greenman and Byron. 1964 should be a great year.

Spring Sports

Our spring sports program features baseball, track, golf, and tennis. Records are unavailable because of the printing date of this Yearbook. We trust that the teams of Coaches Osborn, Tracy, Nevins and Fidler will win every trophy in sight.

The President's Message

The time has finally come for us to part and go our separate ways. But let us always remember the words of many great educators. "The real purpose of education is to enable the pupil to get along without his teacher."

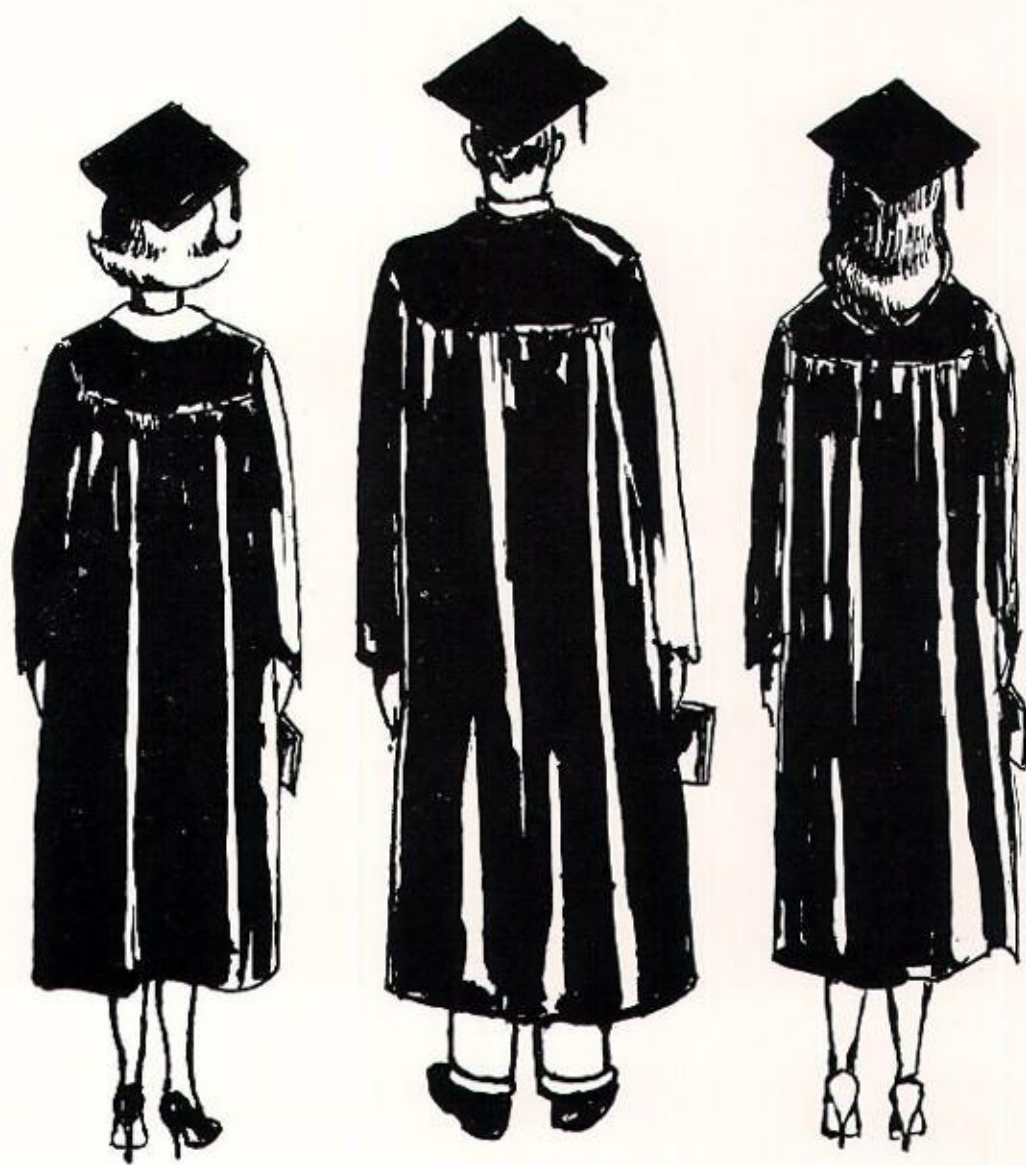

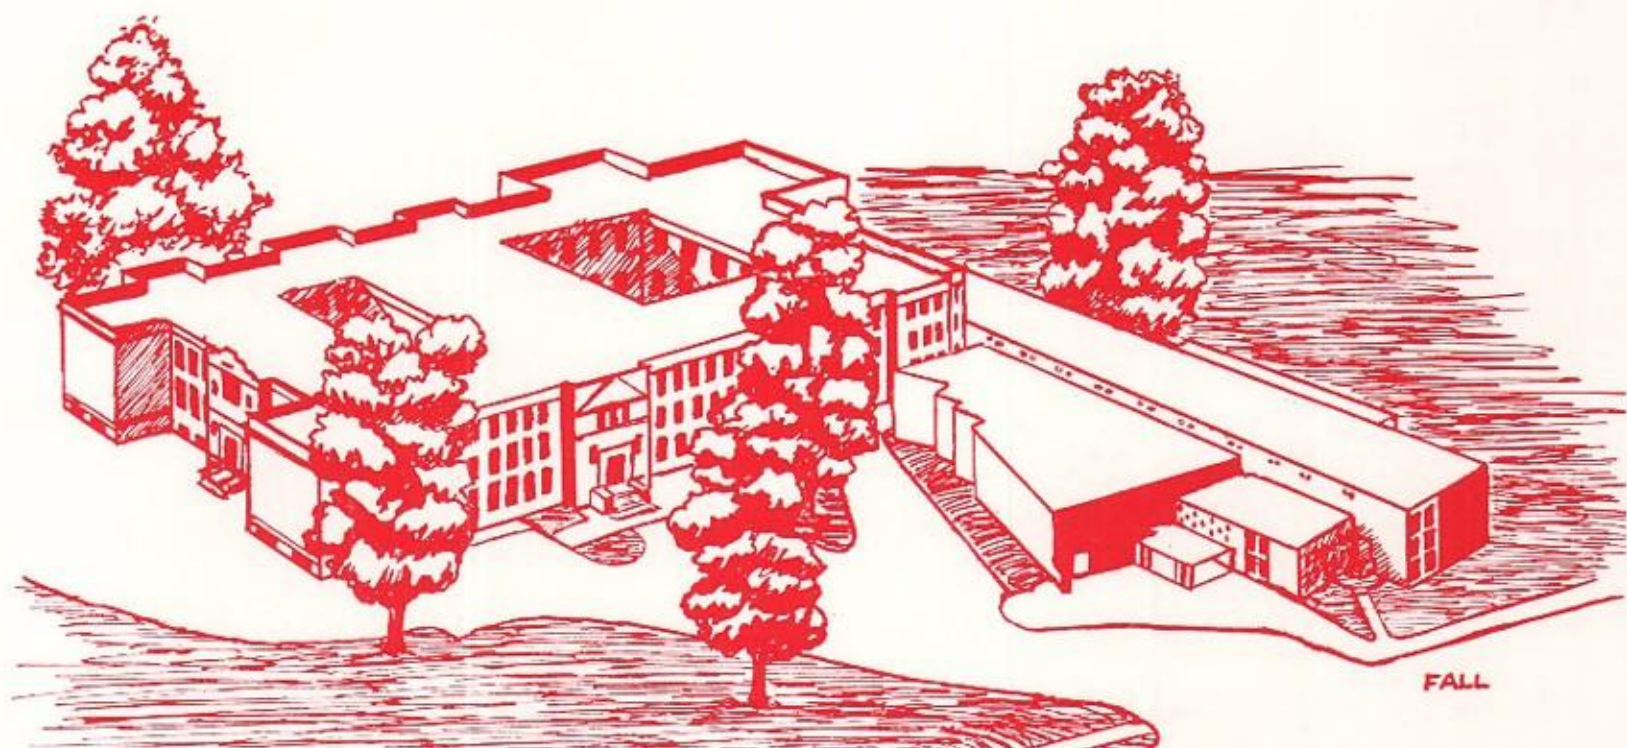

Do not think that once we are out of school, our education has stopped, for we will keep learning every day of our lives. Let us not become lax in our thinking. We must continue to broaden our interests and expand our ideas. Whatever path in life we may take, there will always be room for improvement. Only by constantly striving to reach our goals can we hope to achieve success.

The years ahead will be decisive ones, both personal and world-wide. May the Good Lord give us the courage to stand up for our faith and convictions and help us on the right path throughout life.

On behalf of the members of the Class of 1964, I would like to express our most sincere gratitude and my own personal thanks to those who, through the years, have given us the co-operation and encouragement we have so sorely needed. I only hope that some day each of us may repay you by helping others as you have helped us.

Robert J. Allan

In Loving Memory

Judith Cahan

October 4, 1946 — October 7, 1963

THAT WAS THE

Opening day was set for Sept. 4 . . . nobody could locate the cafeteria, library, or the principal's office . . . Sighted gym on Sept. 16 and spent a jolly hour together . . . Had to get ready for colorful political campaign, carried on mostly in Mr. Baker's homeroom . . . All candidates promised a Prom in better settings than the school gym, and b'gosh they came through . . . We found a couple of Miss Universe contestants that got away and were teaching French and English under the names of Miss Farren and Miss Robinson . . . Also new were Mr. McCabe, bundles collector and social studies teacher; and Mr. Colby, math, science, physics, and downeast philosophy . . . Lost and found featured some real gems day after day after day . . . Much joy at winning a football title, but loss of President Kennedy at about the same time took the edge off the celebrations . . . 'Twas a great year without Bibles or prayers, but there was one immortal "Amen" . . . The Navy Band bounced some pretty nifty notes off our unacoustical walls . . . Sec. of State White spoke about Chickatawbait Road, and politics . . . The Mouse Roared at Pierce . . . Mr. Kane went to Chicago, and the mice really roared . . . More Lost and Found items . . . Dramatic Club tried out for a TV program: "What's My Next Line?" . . . Often heard in the corridors: "I got a 765 in my verbals and a 698 in my math." and always said with a straight face . . . It was a year when we learned why elephants have flat feet . . . And Mr. Mullin's absence notes: "Please excuse Jasper for being absent Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday; he overslept" . . . Funny things happened in Chemistry, if you happen to think that D's and F's are funny . . . Two biggest questions: "Where are you going next year?" and "Where are you going after the Prom?" . . . And remember the colors of the doors . . . And the signs on the new lavatory doors "Keep Out!" . . . Most popular club was the Couples Club; met every day between periods in every nook and corner of the building . . . The Tea Room was used occasionally as a library . . . Lost and Found featured a Mickey Mouse Watch . . . Hockey and Basketball seasons successful: no one got hurt . . . Ski Clubbers had lots of fun if you like watching TV in traction . . . Wonder what was plotted in all those moments of meditation . . . As the Bard would have said about so many rooms in the building, including the lovely lavs: "I see thee still, yet I use thee not." . . . And when the class pictures came back; the blondes had forgotten they were blackheads the week the photographer came . . . The Associated Press story mentioning the one-day delay of second term report cards . . . The shriveled up February vacation . . . How about the written tests in girls' gym classes? . . . All the Dickenses and Fensters wandering and whistling through the corridors . . . And a typical student-teacher conversation: "Miss Dyas, is this Room 219?" . . . "Of course, can't you read the sign: 2-2-1?" . . . Student Persecution week lasted from Sept. till June . . . Parking cars was fun, and the cab ride from Central Sq. . . . Never could convince Miss Shultz that a field trip to see "Cleopatra" would be a good Latin Club project . . . And it was the year that Liston felt the Lashes of Cassius . . . We had many bests: Typists in the Aquinas contest, artists in the Globe contest, wrestlers in the state meet, and for sheer speed, there was nothing like the dashes and hurdles to first place in the chow line . . . We had four in a locker, six at a table at lunch, hours of homework, endless quizzes and tests, but with it all we had a million laughs and a million memories . . . and we'll treasure every one . . . Look out, world: HERE WE COME!

YEAR THAT WAS

'64's Superlatives

FOR the past few years this and the following page have been used to picture and caricature the "most" and the "best" of this and that —

This year's Yearbook Staff, believing such pages concerned too many trivial items and never were — nor could ever be — accurate evaluations, voted unanimously to eliminate this feature from the 1964 Yearbook.

We hope, instead, to make of this page a sort of dedication to all our fellow students who did the very best they could and most profited from their years at Milton High School. We believe that an all-B student who had to work, work, and work some more to attain those B's rates Best Student award every bit as deservedly as the all-A student. The second stringer who got clobbered in practice but who endured all his hurts for the glory of Milton High School is, to our way of thinking, the real Best Athlete award winner.

And so with all the other categories. If you did your best, then you were the best — and we salute you. A good team, a good school, a good town — is not composed of eighteen or twenty Best's and Most's. It is made up of persons all of whom have done their best to make it good.

To you — the best of Milton High School — our congratulations for a job well done.

be dull.

Therefore, we have tried to fulfill our photographic
